

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Robert Glick (866.926.8577)

Legendary Sports Prints Artwork to Appear in Sports Museum

Seven Paintings Displayed When Sports Museum of America Opens

Plantsville, CT – May 6, 2008 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) announced today that sports artwork it markets, six originals and one hand enhanced giclee on canvas, will be on display at the new Sports Museum of America (SmA) when it opens its doors for the first time in New York City on May 7th.

The various works of art, capturing the unique styles of three different renowned sports artists, cover major sports including baseball, basketball, hockey, football and golf. The paintings on display are:

- “It’s Ours”, an original painting by Bill Purdom
- “Making of a Legend”, an original painting by Bill Purdom
- “Opening Day 1929”, a hand enhanced painting by Bill Purdom
- “Roberto”, an original painting by Ron Stark
- “Seaver’s 10K Day”, an original painting by Bill Purdom
- “Sweetness”, an original painting by Bill Purdom
- “Tiger”, an original painting by Al Sorenson

SmA, to be located in the heart of New York’s financial district, is the nation’s first and only museum to celebrate all of the sports Americans love under one roof. The museum will not only feature exhibits of artwork, memorabilia and iconic artifacts but also will be a destination for dynamic, interactive and one-of-a-kind visitor experiences using leading technology.

“We are excited about the opportunity for LSP to partner with such a prestigious venue as the Sports Museum of America,” said Vincent Furfaro, CEO and Co-Founder of LSP. “It will give its many visitors, a must stop attraction for residents and tourists alike, the opportunity to see such fabulous art in addition to the many sports related exhibits,” Mr. Furfaro added.

A digital image of the artwork can be viewed at LSP’s website www.legendarysportsprints.com. In addition to being on display, the original artwork will be available for sale at the museum. Limited edition reproductions of the artwork are available as well from LSP at its website.

About Legendary Sports Prints

Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) is engaged in designing, developing, marketing and producing original hand painted fine sports art depicting memorable sports moments, personalities and locations in history. LSP primarily markets these originals and reproductions of the original artwork in the form of giclees as well as offering certain images in the form of limited edition lithographs. LSP's products are marketed through a large reseller network on the internet and bricks and mortar storefront locations. The Company also offers additional services such as design services, framing and hand signed autographs of certain individuals depicted. LSP has been awarded numerous licenses including Major League Baseball Properties, National Baseball Hall of Fame, Collegiate Licensing Company and many individuals including Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jr. and others. Additional information is available at LSP's website www.legendarysportsprints.com or by contacting LSP at 866.926.8577.

About Sports Museum of America

The Sports Museum of America (SmA) is the nation's first and only all-sports experience richly showcasing the history, grandeur and significance of sports in American culture. Created in exclusive partnership with over 50 single-sport Halls of Fame, National Governing Bodies and other sports organizations across North America, SmA features amazing state-of-the-art interactive technologies, dramatic original films and an iconic collection of sports memorabilia. SmA will also be home to the legendary Heisman Trophy (and annual televised presentation) and the Billie Jean King International Women's Sports Center, inclusive of the first hall of fame devoted exclusively to female athletes and coaches. Located in New York City at 26 Broadway (next to the "Charging Bull" and footsteps from the Statue of Liberty Ferry), the Sports Museum of America will open in May 2008. <http://www.sportsmuseum.com/>.

###